

ALLATOONA CREEK GREENWAY TRAIL STUDY

About the Project!

Cobb County has begun an initial scoping study for the proposed Allatoona Creek Greenway Trail. The greenway is one of eight proposed priority projects in the County's Greenways & Trails Master Plan. During the study, the County will provide several opportunities to weigh in with feedback on community needs and desires, proposed alignments, and potential alternatives. The study seeks to provide safe multimodal access to community assets along the Allatoona Creek corridor!
